

Scenario: You're a busy mom and you're very unorganized. You don't know your recycling day and don't think you will remember to put the bin out. You would like to find out what your recyclables are and set a reminder.

Task 1: Look at the common recyclables.

Complete

Task 2: Find out your recycling pickup day.

Complete

Task 3: Set a reminder for the pickup day.

Kind of complete

Notes

2 things to fix:

I need to make it more clear that the drop down box from the calendar page will give you the option to set a reminder.

I might need to make the back buttons bigger because it took him a while to find out it existed.

2 things to keep:

He liked the setup of the homepage so I think it's safe to keep.

He also liked the revolving recycling sign for the loading icon.
